13TH SUNDAY ORDINARY TIME 1 JULY 2018

Our gospel this Sunday (Mark 5:21-43) gives us two wonderful stories to remind us of Jesus's tenderness and compassion towards those who suffer. The people in each of these stories believed that Jesus could heal. "If I can touch even his clothes..." said the woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years. This gospel reminds us of how the crowds flocked around Jesus looking for healing and a new lease of life.

Both the Synagogue official and the suffering woman were looking for healing, one for his daughter, the other for herself. Today so many of us are looking for healing, in our bodies, in our families, in our feelings and emotions, in our cities, in our world.

Unlike the crowd that gathered around Jesus, we can't touch Jesus in the ordinary physical way that they did. And Jesus can't touch us today as he touched the twelve year old girl by "taking her by the hand".

These stories speak to us about what it really means to touch Jesus or to be touched by him.

Many folk flocked around Jesus, but as far as he was concerned only one person really touched him; "Who touched my clothes?" His words at the end of the story show what it really means to touch him, "My daughter, your faith has restored you to health." And later speaking to Jairus after healing his daughter Jesus says, "Do not be afraid, only have faith."

There are just so many occasions in our lives when we need to hear these words whispered into our hearts and minds: "Only have faith."

Any act of faith, in the hearing of God's word, through the Sacraments, through prayer, through kindness and forgiveness, through speaking the truth is just as powerful a way of touching Jesus and allowing ourselves to be touched by him as would any physical encounter on the roads of Galilee.

We have access and can touch Jesus in any place, at any time of day and night. Healing can be ours when we truly touch Jesus and allow him to touch us. We must make this gospel alive again in our own lives; we're reminded that we don't need to primarily talk, but to touch. Jesus always knows who has truly touched him. When we have faith a new world opens up around us.

Monsignor Paul Farmer

Pastor: St. Benedict's Parish
